Be a part of making History by preserving our past.

~ You must know where you came from before you can figure out where you are going. This is your last chance to be honored as one of our founding funders – giving you a prized place in the history of Little Italy San Jose .

The location of your Brick will be in the Piazza Piccola Italia, which is the courtyard in the middle of the current and future Italian businesses that is filled with lemon and olive trees in a beautiful garden setting.

Thank you for stepping up and starting the momentum needed to celebrate the legacy of our generations past, current families, businesses and for generations to come.
